I forgot to connect the controller to my old Mac Pro so I have to configure it before I get to the language selection screen you get when you turn on the PS2.. My computer already shows Winetricks in a directory and I can only assume it must already be installed by trying to install either Steam or a game with a Wineskin wrapper.. If there is an error for sound, run over the command again, if you receive an error message that says steam is not, you must download setup. Roes Client Software Download Mac
